Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The people of the Huron area have demonstrated to all of South Dakota a tremendous affection and love for the history and heritage of our great state by volunteering thousands of hours and their many talents in the planning and implementation of Division Day and the preceding week's activities; and,

WHEREAS, The people of the Huron area have given all of South Dakota an excellent example of how to produce entertaining, educational and inspiring events for South Dakota's Centennial; and,

WHEREAS, The spectators, visitors and participants thoroughly enjoyed the activities of Division Day and the preceding week; and,

WHEREAS, The excellent final results of these events and activities are proof that the best qualities of our Dakota ancestors are still alive and dynamic in the people of the Huron area; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor, on behalf of all South Dakotans, recognize these tremendous accomplishments:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby officially thank and extend the people of South Dakota's great appreciation to the people of the Huron area for their hard work and extra efforts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Second Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
